Kith and TaylorMade launch golf collection

By Jennifer Braun - 11 July 2022

New York City’s Kith has partnered with golf icon TaylorMade to launch an extensive collection of apparel, accessories and golf equipment.

At the heart of the collection is a spectrum of performance products such as apparel, footwear, and golf equipment including Kith-branded clubs. In particular, the collection introduces the first-of-its-kind Kith Stealth Plus driver in an elegant black and gold color palette, as well as the limited-edition Kith for TaylorMade TP Soto Putter.

Also included in the golf equipment assortment are accessories like golf gloves, gold balls, hat clip ball markers, cart towels, golfing bags, golf tees, and a canteen created in partnership with Corkcicle.

Likewise, the apparel assortment is rooted in outerwear with items like the Kith for TaylorMade Wool Varsity Jacket, the water-resistant nylon Kith for TaylorMade The 19th Jackets, the stretch cotton twill Kith for TaylorMade Eagle Coaches Jackets, and the water-resistant nylon Kith for TaylorMade Birdie Windshirts. Other apparel options include hoodies, shorts and more traditional golf styles like the Kith for TaylorMade Bogie Vest and the Kith for TaylorMade Turn Polo.

Rounding-out the collection is footwear, which sees a reintroduction of Kith’s partnership with adidas Originals. This collection consists of three silhouettes including the Campus 80, Superstar and Samba. To pair with the sneakers, the collection includes three Kith for TaylorMade Crew Socks available in black, white, and Fairway green.

Kith for TaylorMade and Kith Classics for Adidas Originals are now available at all Kith shops, and on Kith.com.
